ADMISSION CAMPAIGN – SPREADING AWARENESS IN THE COMMUNITY

 Dates: 6th, 8th, 9th, 13th, and 15th May 2025

 Location: In and around Valmikipuram (Vayalpad), Annamayya District

To ensure wider awareness and outreach for the upcoming academic admissions, NTR Government Degree College, Valmikipuram organized a dedicated Admission Campaign on 6th, 8th, 9th, 13th, and 15th May 2025.

The campaign was spearheaded under the leadership of Dr. P. Babu, Principal, with the active participation of teaching and non-teaching staff, and enthusiastic student volunteers.

Objectives of the Campaign:

- Promote awareness about courses offered at the college
- Encourage rural and economically backward students to pursue higher education
- Distribute admission brochures and interact directly with parents and students
- Provide clarity on eligibility, scholarship opportunities, and support services

The outreach was conducted at public gathering points like local schools, community centers, market areas, and village junctions. Faculty teams personally addressed potential applicants and their families, emphasizing the value of quality education, career opportunities, and the student-friendly environment at the college.

This initiative strengthened the college's rapport with the local community and highlighted its commitment to inclusive and accessible education. The positive response from students and parents reflects the growing trust and academic reputation of the institution.

The campaign also helped increase visibility for newly introduced Honours programs, motivating many first-generation learners to step into higher education.

STAY SAFE IN THE HEAT: HEAT STROKE AWARENESS PROGRAM

 Date: 17th May 2025

 Venue: NTR Government Degree College, Valmikipuram (Vayalpad)

 Initiative: Swachha Andhra – Swarna Andhra

As part of the Swachha Andhra – Swarna Andhra (SASA) initiative, NTR Government Degree College, Valmikipuram, organized an important awareness program on heat stroke prevention for students on 17th May 2025.

The program, titled “Stay Safe in the Heat: Understanding Heat Stroke Prevention”, aimed to educate students about the causes, symptoms, prevention, and treatment of heat stroke, especially in light of rising summer temperatures.

The session was inaugurated by Dr. P. Babu, Principal, who emphasized the importance of health awareness during the scorching summer season. Faculty members addressed the gathering, offering practical tips on staying hydrated, identifying early signs of heat-related illnesses, and the importance of timely intervention.

Students participated actively, interacting with the speakers and gaining critical knowledge on managing extreme heat conditions. The program served as a proactive step toward enhancing student health literacy and preparedness against heat-related emergencies.

This initiative reflects the college's ongoing commitment to student well-being and community engagement through awareness and education.

INTERNSHIP VIVA VOCE – 6th SEMESTER STUDENTS

 Date: 24th May 2025 (Saturday)

 Time: 10:00 AM

 Venue: NTR Government Degree College, Valmikipuram

As part of the academic curriculum, Internship Viva Voce was conducted for final-year (6th semester) students of all UG programs at NTR Government Degree College, Valmikipuram on 24th May 2025 at 10:00 AM.

The viva aimed to evaluate the practical exposure, learning outcomes, and industry-relevant skills acquired by students during their internship period. Students presented their reports and reflected on their hands-on experience in various sectors, including education, commerce, healthcare, and IT services.

A panel of faculty evaluators, led by Dr. P. Babu, Principal, and respective department lecturers, assessed the students on parameters such as:

Quality of internship experience

Clarity of presentation

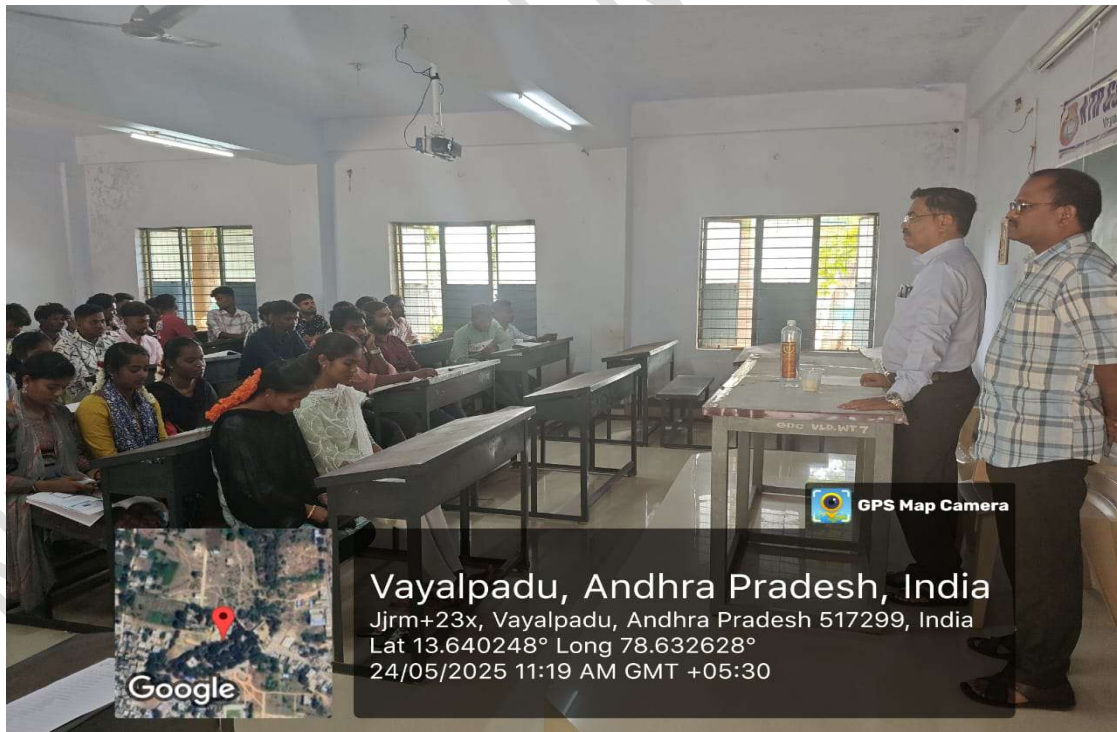

Relevance to academic learning

Industry insights and reflections

Communication and confidence

The session provided a valuable platform for students to demonstrate their professional preparedness and receive constructive feedback. It also encouraged peer learning, as students shared diverse experiences from their respective internship placements.

This academic exercise reinforced the institution's objective of bridging the gap between theoretical knowledge and real-world application, a key milestone for students preparing to enter the workforce.

Thank you
